A CHINAMAN SUICIDES.

Duck's Blood as an Antidote—Explosion at Powder Works—Dry Dock.

NANAIMO, Nov. 30.—Jung Yung Loon, a Chinaman residing in Chinatown, committed suicide on Monday night by taking an overdose of opium. Deceased had been suffering for a long time from lung trouble and stole the opium from a friend to put an end to his suffering. When discovered the usual Chinese remedy of hot duck's blood was administered, and this having no effect Dr. Rice was sent for, but on his arrival he found the man was too far gone to live. He was buried yesterday.

An explosion took place at the Hamilton Powder Works on Monday night from some cause not made public. Fortunately no one was injured, and the mishap was confined to the wheel house, which is apart from the other buildings. Mr. W. J. Young, the manager, is reticent concerning the matter. The damage will not exceed $100.

While one of Mayor Haslam's horses was being shod yesterday, it reared and plunged until it severed one of the arteries in its hind leg. The wound was sewed and bandaged.

T. Olsen, a sailor belonging to the the steamship Signal, was fined $50 by Magistrate Planta yesterday for supplying whiskey to some Indians at the Euclataw camp on the previous evening.

The funeral of Mrs. McClellan took place from the residence lately occupied by the deceased yesterday and was followed by a large number of sympathising friends. Haslam's saw mill, where the husband works, was closed during the day to enable the workmen to attend the funeral.

It is reported around town that Mr. S. M. Robins is interesting himself in a dry dock for Nanaimo, but how far the report is true it is impossible to say, as that gentleman is away from the city. Nothing is known about it at the company's office.

IMMIGRATION MUST STOP.

The United States Senate Committee Decide to Stop the Influx for One Year.

Lawyer Knox and His Wife Realize that the Way of Transgressors is Hard.

Loss of a Japanese Cruiser With All Hands—Gen. Newton's Double Pay.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A session of the united senate committee on immigration commenced at the 5th Avenue Hotel yesterday, and continued till this morning. It is believed the committee practically agreed on the affirmative on the following propositions: All immigration, except from North and South American countries, shall be suspended from March 1st, 1893, for one year, the law to be so framed as not to hinder the free return of American citizens or the easy admission of visitors. Those present at the meeting were Senators Chandler, Proctor, Hall, Faulking, Call and Hiscock. At noon the meeting was still in secret session.

Always Drew His Salary.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 30.—Secretary of War Elkins in his official capacity promises to become a conspicuous figure on the Panama canal proceedings whereby American interests are seriously jeopardized. Secretary Elkins' attention has been directed to the fact that General John Newton, who is president of the Panama Railway Co., is a major-general on the retired list of the United States army. The Panama Railway company was organized under the law of New York and given a charter which guaranteed that the enterprise should always be controlled by American stockholders. The company passed almost entirely into French hands, but Gen. Newton remained president and has regularly drawn salaries as a retired U.S. army officer, and president of a railway company. He only awaited the expiration of its contract obligations to immediately attack the American interests. As soon as Secretary Elkins' attention was drawn to this state of affairs he recognized that General Newton was occupying a commercial position inconsistent with the spirit of his military position and inimical to the interests of the American Government, under whose flag he is still enrolled. Since officers on the retired list are considered by the war department as being still in the service of the country, it is stated that Secretary Elkins, in view of General Newton's anomalous position has addressed him in a letter which, after directing his attention to the inconsistency of his two salaried positions, suggested to him, by intimation at least, the propriety of resigning one place or the other. Congress is almost sure to take the Panama question in hand and deal with it vigorously from an American standpoint.

Chose His Own Path.

ELMIRA, N.Y., Nov. 30.—Robert J. Knox, formerly of this city, and his wife, who was formerly a Miss Annie Brush, daughter of the late Rev. A. Brush, rector of the Episcopal church at Bath, N.Y., are in prison in the City of Mexico charged with obtaining jewelry under false pretences. Knox is a lawyer and the son of a Presbyterian minister who died in Elmira several years ago. Knox left here five years ago for the West. He drifted back to New York city and met Miss Brush, and they were married under the name of Evans. They led a fast life and finally went to Mexico, where he expected employment. He, however, found himself penniless in a foreign country, with large board bills and other financial obligations to meet. He purchased several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds from a jewelry firm in the City of Mexico, giving drafts on a former college mate for the amount. The drafts were not met and Knox and his wife were arrested and are now awaiting trial. He has written several piteous appeals for help to his former friends in this city, but so far nothing has been done to raise the necessary $2000 to rescue him and his wife from prison. He describes the prison as a well where typhus fever and smallpox are a constant terror to the four thousand prisoners. The cells, he says, are loathsome and unhealthy and the food is unfit for dogs. The probabilities are that Knox and his wife will be tried this week and a probable sentence of from four to seven years stares them in the face.

Considered President's Message.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—A meeting of the cabinet was called at 11:30 o'clock this morning and was held at the state department, the White House being in mourning. The President walked over to the department, and all the members were present except Secretary Tracy. The only business before the meeting was a discussion of the President's message. This was read and considered in detail.

Loss of a Japanese Cruiser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Information was received at the Maritime Exchange to-day that the Japanese cruiser Sherihi Harukaw had collided with the British steamer Ravenna in the Red Sea and sunk. The Japanese cruiser was bound from France to Japan, and all of the crew, numbering 270 are reported lost.

Bad Year for Beer Making.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Serious financial difficulties confront the David G. Yunling brewing company, the vast corporation with a mammoth plant at Amsterdam avenue and 128th street. Interest is unpaid for the last six months on the million dollar or more first mortgage bonds which fell due on October 1st. Nor are there any funds for taking up these bonds, which mature next January. Holders of these bonds have appointed a committee of five to investigate the affairs of the corporation. On its reports depend the nature of the proceedings to be taken by the bondholders for the protection of their interest. Banks are the principal creditors of the concern. It was thought yesterday by many of those most largely interested in the bonds that there would be legal action which would result in foreclosure proceedings. Should the reports of the committee be favorable it is probable that the bondholders will be willing to grant an extension of time. It is reported that some of the bondholders are dissatisfied with the management of David Yunling, jr., but the integrity of Mr. Yunling is unquestionable. The reason generally assigned for the financial trouble is that this has been a "bad year", and that the materials used in making beer are higher.

CAPITAL GOSSIP.

The Northwest Mounted Police—Hon. Mr. Dewdney's Secretary.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—Mr. Fred. White, comptroller of the Northwest Mounted Police, is here. He says it is possible that the police will be converted into a militia force, but he knows nothing about it.

Mr. Frank Beard, secretary to Sir John Abbott, has returned from England. He has been offered the post of secretary to the Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30.—Sir John Thompson is now regretting that he took the members of the Abbott cabinet into his confidence to aid him in making a cabinet. They are further away to-day from completing the organization of the ministry than when they commenced.

Dr. Montague is making a strong bid for Carling's position. His friends are flooding Thompson with letters on his behalf, but Carling refuses to go. Clark Wallace will not stand Montague getting in and himself being left out. Dalton McCarthy objects to either, and so the fight is lively in Ontario. Senator Miller was determined to lead the Senate, but New Brunswick already has its complement.

Mr. Costigan, who is in New Brunswick trying to settle a squabble which has arisen in Kent county among the Conservatives over the nomination, failed to do so. Two Conservatives, Johnson and McInerney, have been nominated against Leblanc, Liberal. The nomination took place to-day.

WESTMINSTER WIRINGS.

A Rich Chinaman Arrested on a Capias—Fine Thoroughbred Cattle.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 30.—Two Chinamen, Woo Yung and Chung Low, were arrested by the sheriff on a capias sworn out by Lee Now, for a debt of $987, being about to leave the country. Both were let out on bail. It appears to be a case of highbinder blackmail. The debt is alleged to be a gambling liability for $1000 incurred in 1887. Woo Yung for 14 years worked at Ewen's cannery. He is wealthy and did a big contracting business. Chung Low was his bookkeeper. The tables are expected to be turned on Lee Now, as neither intended leaving.

In the Supreme Court, proceedings in the case of Carscaden & Peck, of Winnipeg, vs. Oppenheimer Bros., Vancouver, were brought by the plaintiffs on behalf of all the creditors to set aside a chattel mortgage on the stock-in-trade of McIntosh, Vesey & Magar, of Dewdney. In the pleading it was alleged that a fraudulent preference was given Oppenheimer Bros. as against the other creditors. The amount of the litigation is set at $2000.

H. Nelems arrived from Ontario with 10 head of thoroughbred shorthorn and Ayrshire cattle for his farm in Chilliwhack. It is said to be the finest class of stock ever imported.

Capsized By the Gale.

OAKLAND, Cala., Nov. 30.—The schooner Caroline Dix, Capt. Thompson, and owned by John Olson, of San Francisco, was severely damaged by this morning's storm while lying at the south mole. She was heavily laden and had a deck load of railway iron. At 4:30 a. m. a sudden squall capsized her. As she went over the railroad iron slipped into the bay and the mainmast snapped off close to the deck. With the loss of the iron and the main mast the schooner immediately righted and drifted ashore, where she now lies, after receiving a severe pounding on the rocks. Word has been received from West Berkley reporting the capsizing of some fishing boats off the shore there, and the drowning of seven Italians.

Raging Winds at Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—The storm continued at 6 o'clock this morning, wind was blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour. At Point Labous at 9 o'clock it had abated somewhat. The steamer Pasadena, from Humboldt to San Pedro, put in here this morning on account of rough weather.

The damage done is estimated to be between $20,000 and $30,000.

Buckingham & Co.'s factory was flooded and work suspended for the day.

A cottage on Bernal Heights was completely wrecked at an early hour. Fortunately the family which occupied it moved out a few hours before, and no one was injured.

A Heavy Gale.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—During the height of the gale this morning the house at a Chinese camp was blown down, killing one Chinaman and injuring two others. The roof over the stage of Tivoli opera house was blown off early this morning, and rain flooded the scenery and dressing rooms.

The cruisers Monterey and Olympia broke from their moorings and for a time it looked as if they would make a tour of the bay. Assistance however, was summoned in time.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED.

H.M.S. Howe's Officers Exonerated From All Blame for the Loss of Their Ship.

The Chart Was Made When Horatio Nelson Was a Boy and Trafalgar Afar Off.

The Admiralty Severely Censured for Permitting the Use of Such an Antique.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Capt. Alexander, P. Hastings, C.B., and Commander David Dickson, of the British armed battle ship Howe, which went ashore on Periero reef, at the entrance to Ferrol harbor, Spain, on the second of November, were honorably acquitted by a court martial convened to fix the responsibility for the wreck. It was proved in testimony that the chart provided for the use of the vessel was a century old and inaccurate. The evidence is arousing much indignation against the Admiralty for permitting such a valuable vessel to run such risks for want of an accurate chart.

Dividend Day.

MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—Several of the banks in this city will to-morrow pay their half yearly dividends which will amount in the aggregate to $1,224,000. Gladstone's Canadian Portrait.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The proceedings when the Canadian portrait of Mr. Gladstone will be presented to the National Liberal Club on Dec. 12th, promise to be of unusual interest. Lord Rosebery's promise to act as chairman of the dinner is regarded as a special honor, and this, combined with Mr. Blake's presence to hand over the gift, will secure a very influential company.

Swift Electric Death.

OAKLAND, Nov. 30.—Early this morning as the delivery wagon for a bakery was starting out the horses ran into a hanging telegraph wire which had crossed the trolly wire of an electric railway. Both horses fell dead. The driver, the minute he touched them, had sparks playing around him like a storm of lightning. Only his rubber coat saved him from death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—James Fogarty, who shot and slightly wounded Charles M. Lent, son of his former employer, and who then suicided, died from his wounds this morning.

Died of Heart Disease.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 30.—Hugh E. Clark, general western agent of the Dupont Powder Co., and one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens in Omaha, died this morning of heart disease.

Messrs. DeBoucherville, Pelletier and Flynn, Quebec Ministers, ridicule the opinion purported to be given by Messrs. The Canadian Pacific earnings for October, 1892, were: Gross earnings, $2,112,193; working expenses $1,088,260; net profits, $1,024,503. In October, 1891, the net profits were $978,665. The platform includes these planks: Abolition of the contract system in public works and the payment of union wages on all work under public control, the abolition of grants for immigration, the public control of public franchises with a view to the ultimate nationalization of industry, etc.

The Mail's Montreal correspondent says: "Hon. Mr. Chapleau, I am informed to-day, is still hesitating whether to accept the lieutenant-governorship of Quebec or not. His friends are strongly urging him to remain in the cabinet, at least until the Manitoba school question is settled. They point out that, with Sir John Thompson as premier, he will have great influence in the cabinet, and that it would be folly for him to relinquish active political life when the situation is so favorable." The World's Ottawa correspondent says: "As soon as the cabinet is united and things are in good order, Sir John Thompson will go to both Montreal and Toronto and make a couple of speeches foreshadowing the policy of his Government." The Globe's Ottawa correspondent says: "It is learned that Sir John Thompson will keep the portfolio of Justice in the new cabinet."

A meeting was held at Montreal to discuss the political future of Canada. It is estimated that 10,000 people assembled at Somner park, hundreds being unable to obtain admission. The speakers of the evening were: Messrs. A. McGoun of the Imperial Federation League, R. Lemieux, a partner of ex-Premier Mercier, who was in favor of Independence, J. T. Cardinal for the Colonial system, and Elgin Myers for Annexation. Mr. Cardinal advocated the maintenance of the Colonial system as the best for the interests of all the people, and for the French Canadians in particular. Mr. Lemieux spoke strongly for an independent nation. Mr. McGoun said Canada would be the most benefited by a close connection with the Empire, and denounced all who advocated annexation as traitors worthy of being strung up to the lamp posts. One portion of the gathering cheered loudly at this sentiment, but there were hisses from others. Mr. Myers met with a bad reception from one portion of the audience, which hissed him and cheered for Sir Oliver Mowat. The chairman, Mr. J. X. Perrault, called for order, but the hissing was renewed, and it was only when some policemen were called in that order was restored. The chairman appealed for British fair play, and was loudly cheered. Mr. Myers then proceeded with his speech, but was frequently interrupted by questions and shouts, which were drowned in applause. He strongly advocated the political union of Canada and the United States. It was after 11 o'clock when he finished, and a vote was called on the question with the following result: Independence, 1614; annexation, 992; the existing condition, 364; Imperial federation, 29.

Cut vs. Wire Nails.

WATERTOWN, MASS., NOV. 30.—An important test, and one of interest to the manufacturers and users of wire nails and cut nails throughout the country, was inaugurated this morning at the United States arsenal. The object of the test is to decide the question of superiority, and to determine the comparative holding power of cut nails and wire nails of equal lengths and weights, when driven, and in actual use, into the common building material of the country. The method of conducting the test is by pulling ten cut nails of given length and weight, and then pulling ten wire nails of the same length and weight, thus testing the nails in pairs, until the list is exhausted. The nails used have been selected from stocks on the market, and the tests are taking place upon the government testing machine under the supervision and control of the commanding officer of the arsenal. The result will be embodied in an official report which will be furnished to the manufacturers interested.

Misappropriated Funds.

MADRID, NOV. 29.—A cabinet council held to-day brought to light irreconcilable divisions among the ministers. The subject of the contention is the prosecution of the municipal authorities for corruption in the management of funds for the Columbus fetes. The misappropriation of the funds has been virtually proved. The governor of the city, who is most deeply involved, is known to have conducted every part of the arrangements which he touched solely to fill his own pockets. Large sums which were to be expended on the fetes are said to have been squandered upon editors and correspondents in order that they might be induced to hold their peace as to his dishonesty. There is a strong popular demand for an investigation and prosecution, in which three ministers concur. The other ministers fear the consequences for the cabinet and the popular tumult which the revelations may probably provoke. A crisis is regarded as imminent.

Another Sham Benefit Society.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., NOV. 29.—A return was made to-day before Judge Simonton in the Dauphin County Court upon the writ of quo warranto issued upon the application of Attorney-General Hensel against the Order of Vesta, a benefit concern having headquarters in this city, the writ demanding that cause be shown why a decree should not be issued dissolving the corporation. The Order was incorporated in this city four years ago last Thursday, with C. Oscar Beasley as national president and Charles H. Edmunds as national secretary. The collapse of the Iron Hall and other similar organizations has had a depressing effect upon the organization, and six weeks ago the national officers decided to make an assignment. The Order has at the present time but one thousand members, although the appraised assets are claimed to amount to nearly ninety thousand dollars.

Fierce Religious Brawls.

ROME, NOV. 29.—Trouble is brewing here in consequence of the selection of men conspicuous in the Seville Catholic congress to lead the Spanish pilgrims to Rome on the occasion of the Papal Jubilee. Those most conspicuous among the pilgrims are men who at Seville denounced the Italian Government and King Humbert most bitterly for withholding the temporal power from the Pope and took steps towards organizing sections in Spain to aid in the resurrection of that power. The violent language of these men has already been the subject of remonstrance at Madrid on the part of the Italian Government. The choice of them to lead the pilgrims is regarded as a fresh defiance of the Italian monarchy. The Liberals in Rome threaten to make a counter demonstration in the street, and are likely to cause violent scenes.

To Guard Against Epidemics.

CITY OF MEXICO, NOV. 29.—After several days of pleasure the delegates to the annual convention of the American Public Health association proceeded to business to-day. One of the most important subjects for discussion is the means to prevent epidemics in Chicago during the World's Fair. The action of the convention on this subject will be especially certified as a recommendation to the Illinois State board of health and the local health officers of Chicago.

Lord Dufferin's Son's Marriage.

NEW YORK, NOV. 30.—High society circles are all in a flutter over the confirmation of the report of the engagement of Miss Flora Davis, daughter of Mr. John H. Davis of this city, and counted one of the most beautiful girls of the metropolis, and Lord Terrence John Temple Blackwood, second son of the Marquis of Dufferin, at present English minister to Paris, and at one time Viceroy of India, and earlier Governor-General of Canada.

New York Society Leaders Wed.

NEWPORT, R.I., NOV. 29.—The wedding at high noon to-day in Trinity church of Miss Charlotte Hunnewell Winthrop and Henry S. Cram, both prominent young leaders in New York society, was one of unusual brilliancy. Over a hundred representatives of Gotham's old families were among the congregation. J. Sergeant Cram, the well known club man, and a brother of the groom, officiated as best man.

Mexican Corn Tariff.

CITY OF MEXICO, NOV. 30.—The tariff on corn, which, by order of the government, had been abrogated for several months, will be restored, commencing to-morrow morning. During the past months the receipts of the cereal, mainly from Kansas and Illinois, have been gigantic, and tremendous blockades on the road were with difficulty avoided.

Will Hang for Murder.

LONDON, NOV. 29.—Joseph Mellor was sentenced to death by the Manchester court to-day for having murdered his wife early in September. He has written a letter to the effect that Lizzie Sunderland, a young unmarried woman, plotted the murder with him in order that he might be free to marry her. Miss Sunderland says, however, that she did not even know that he was married. She says that she taxed him with living with a woman, and he replied that he knew he had been wild and had lived with a woman, but he never would do it again. They had made no preparations for marriage. "Although," says Miss Sunderland, "I should have married him if everything had gone all right. He told me he was going to sell up, and I told him he would have to do so if he intended to have me. He never told me he had lived with this woman, and I did not think he did. Many people told me he was a married man, but as many told me differently and that I should be all right in going with him. He has never given me money or anything." Despite this statement the Sunderland girl is under surveillance and Mellor's statements will be investigated.

Panama Canal Transactions.

PARIS, NOV. 29.—In the Panama investigation, the principal testimony was to the absence of all transactions in cheques between Baron Reinach and M. Arton. It was given be Banker Kohn Reinach. That gentleman made the impression that he was holding something back, and later suspicions of the commission to this effect were confirmed when the evidence of the partner was proffered. The latter contradicted in detail about every statement made by Kohn Reinach. He stated that forty thousand francs had been paid through the bank to Arton on debit slips on account of Baron Reinach. M. Prinet, the investigating magistrate, testified before the commission that of nine million frances given to Baron Reinach for the canal enterprise, the Baron accounted for only three million.

Imperative for Ireland's Safety.

LONDON, NOV. 29. — Archbishop Walsh, of Dublin, in the course of an interview, declared that the adoption of bi-metallism is a matter of imperative necessity to save the Irish tenants from inevitable ruin. It is disheartening, the Archbishop added, to find no interest taken in the question by the leaders of the Irish parliamentary party. If things go on as they are, even the excellent land purchase scheme may become, before many years, a source of widespread disaster to purchasers under it. According to the Archbishop's views, foreign competition is not at all the sole cause of the ruinous fall in the prices of agricultural products. The main cause, he believes, is the continuous rise in the value of gold.

Tremendous Roaring in the Head -Pain in the Stomach.

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and in my stomach. I took medicines without benefit, until, having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. All the disagreable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches, and believe is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." GEO. W. COOK, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Cubb's Cough Cure

ANTISEPTIC.

Do you know what an ANTISEPTIC is? We will tell you. It is a medicine or application which arrests decay or putrefaction and heals. The application of antiseptic preparations has made it possible for surgeons to do what was never dreamed of, because antiseptics stop all formation of corrupt matter. We do the same in our Cough Cure.

A Cough or other Lung Disease speedily causes decay. The best proof of this is the putrid phlegm which you spit up. Cubb's Cough Cure IMMEDIATELY arrests this decay and the cure follows with surprising rapidity. If you have a COUGH, or your child has whooping cough, ONE DOSE, or at most TWO will make you our friend.

PROTECTIONISTS SCARED.

Presidential Election Echoes Are Causing Alarm in Ottawa Circles.

The Genesis of Red Parlorism---Some Rumors of an Early General Election.

From our own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—The Democratic wave which passed all over the United States a couple of weeks ago and on which Mr. Cleveland sailed triumphantly into power, is now making the Ottawa Government feel uncomfortably cool. The return of Mr. Cleveland is the handwriting on the wall, numbering the days of the representatives of the "Red Parlor." High protection has got a blow on this continent from which it cannot recover. The Canadian McKinleys must follow their American brethren. Canada and the world today is profiting by the lesson, even if our taxes are not reduced. The silver lining is seen on a darkened horizon, and the time is not far distant when the combinsters and monopolist administration must yield to the pressure of public feeling. Mr. Cleveland cannot make the United States a free trade country like England all at once, but he can and will lighten the heavy burdens heaped upon the people—more especially the agricultural class—by excessive taxation. Protection is wrong in theory and hurtful in practice, and the fight against it can only terminate in one way. If protection is wrong in theory what must high protection be? Neither Canada nor the United States adopted protection on its merits. It came to the republic as a result of necessity. It was a costly relic which the war left to pay. Rather it was needed to pay the war debt. Its imposition gave the manufacturers a taste of blood drawn from the great army of workers—the masses—and ever since that time they have fought for its maintenance. Like the blood-hounds, once they have got a taste they have been insatiable. They learned the idea of enriching the few at the expense of the many, and have therefore continued to amass millions to keep the political party in power that would give them protection. Nearly every manufacturing industry in the United States was under the control of a trust, and a few millionaires run the railways thereof.

LOOKING TO CANADA.

While there was a good excuse in the United States to adopt protection, as it was obliged to pay up the war debt, there was no excuse at all for Canada following the Yankee system of government. Indeed, the only excuse given to us at the time was that because we could not have reciprocity in trade we were going to get reciprocity in tariffs. That was what the late lamented leader of the Conservative party told us. It was to force reciprocity that we were going to adopt protection. No one dared to justify protection except for some such reason. Our young industries were said to be needing a little assistance. These pleas were put forward and the people in 1878 approved of them. Before the electors were fully aware of what they had done their bonds were made secure. Another stage has been reached in our existence, and we, like the United States, have got our combines and monopolies which are guiding the destinies of the country. They supply the funds to expend at election times, and so perpetuate the vicious system of enriching the few at the expense of the many. It was really a struggle for freedom that animated the people during the presidential campaign just closed. Their success teaches us a lesson on this side of the line. Indeed, the electors are being already imbued with the motives which actuated our American cousins, and if an opportunity now presented itself in Canada the result would be equally gratifying. As I have already said, this is becoming apparent to the government, and people are beginning to wonder what step will next be taken to delude the people, for no one who knows the gentlemen of the "Red Parlor" will admit that any real remedy will be attempted. The loyalty question has done its duty, and time will tell what the next piece of humbug will be.

TEMPERING PROTECTION FOR SOME TIME.

Canada to-day is the most highly protected English-speaking country in the world. Although the United States had a high tariff, it has been seeking refuge for some time from the evil effects thereof. The Republican party found it necessary to temper the rigors of the protective system with a policy of reciprocity, which gave to her industries in many lines the benefit of free raw material. Canada is far behind her neighbor in this regard. To-day the Dominion has not one reciprocity treaty nor any solitary arrangement for reciprocal trade. We have had retaliation between ourselves and the United States, and we have had a war of tariffs with Newfoundland. A conference has just been closed in Halifax to restore friendly trade relations, but with what result we must wait for some time yet before it becomes known. No matter what President Cleveland may do in the way of removing taxation, Canada's battle for freedom will come with the next general election. It will be a battle for the distribution of the advantages and benefits equally and justly. It will be a battle for the home and the fireside; for the right of the workingman to obtain a living in this country instead of being driven out of it, as tens of thousands have been during the past decade. To be brief, it will be a battle against the classes by the masses, and the latter are bound to win.

A GENERAL ELECTION.

I was told to-day that the Government realizes the position the country is placed in in regard to high protection, and knowing that a little time is all that is necessary to educate the electors on this point they are to spring a general election on the country next summer so as to save the Tory citadel, which is supported by the Red Parlor, from utter ruin. In this way the Liberals are expected to be caught napping.

PREMIER DAVIE.

Hon. Theodore Davie, Premier of British Columbia, was an eye-witness to the closing scenes of the great election in the United States. He was then in New York city. All eyes were then cast upon New York city and state, for it was generally conceded that as that state went so would go, the United States. This was the result. Mr. Davie has returned to Ottawa, and today had an interview with the committee of the cabinet which was appointed to meet him and discuss the questions which brought him here. His stay will likely be a little delayed owing to the absence of the new Minister of the Interior in the Northwest and Manitoba, being delayed owing to his accident.

SLABTOWN.

The Nicaragua Canal.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 30.—Delegates from a large majority of the boards of trade, commercial exchanges, chambers of commerce, and maritime exchanges of the country, together with many representatives of states especially accredited by the governors thereof, were present this morning at the opening session of the National Nicaragua Canal convention. The gathering was called to order by ex-Congressman George L. Convers, of Ohio, chairman of the executive committee. He stated that the convention was held in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the national conference held at St. Louis in June last, and its object was to consider the question of the immediate construction of the canal, under the protection and control of the United States, in the interests of commerce and the republics of the western hemisphere, and also to devise means for the early completion of the enterprise. He alluded at length to the advantages which would be afforded by the completion of the canal, saying among other things that it would create a new market for the flour and cotton of the United States by saving over 10,000 miles of freight, while it would also stimulate the ship-building interests of the nation.

Cupid and the Parson.

LONG BRANCH, Nov. 30.—The members of the Jersey conference of the Methodist Episcopal church are at present exercised over the disappearance of Rev. Geo. S. Sykes, who was the pastor of the First Church at West Long Branch. Mr. Sykes left here on October 27 to attend the convention of Christian Endeavor Society at Bridgetown, and did attend it, and was thought so much of that he presided at several of the sessions. At the close of the convention he purchased a clerical ticket for Camden or Philadelphia and from that time no information has been received by his family. It is stated that he visited this place after his return from Bridgetown, but his wife, who was visiting friends at the time, did not see him and she has not received any communication from him. Mr. Sykes had some trouble with his congregation owing to the interest he took in a certain young lady who attended his services, and of whom some of the members spoke disparagingly. He defended her and it is said that he even went so far as to take her out with him several times in the society of his wife. It is stated that the young woman in whom Mr. Sykes had interested himself is also missing.

Frontier Squabbles.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—Another of those frontier rows which may lead to something serious is reported from Gummara. A German named Herman Steinker, carrying goods near the Russian frontier, was seized by Russian frontier guards under the mistaken impression that he was trespassing. The Russians commenced dragging Steinker towards the village of Bijka. His cries attracted the Prussian gens d'armes to the place and they demanded his release. His captors refused and the Prussians opened fire on them. Some shots were exchanged without doing any harm, and in the confusion Steinker escaped.

Substantial Gratitude.

ROME, Nov. 29.—The special dispensation of the Pope for the marriage of the Princess Marie of Edinburgh and Prince Ferdinand of Roumania, is said to have been granted and forwarded; the condition attached to it was: All male children by the marriage should be reared in the Roman Catholic faith. The Crown Prince, the journals state, has shown his gratitude to the Holy Father by sending two million five hundred thousand francs to the Vatican.

Cleveland's Treasury Secretary.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—While Mr. Cleveland is gunning on Hog Island, a number of matters in relation to his cabinet and his policy have been shaping themselves without his guiding hand. Mr. Cleveland when he went away, to escape the importunities of place seekers, did not know who would be his Secretary of the Treasury. He will know when he returns from his vacation. Charles S. Fairchild will accept this portfolio. Additional interest attaches to this fact, because it is the first cabinet position determined.

Journalisms Thorny Paths.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 30.—Henry Astor Carey is again to venture upon the field of journalism. He has just paid a large sum for the Newport World, a Democratic newspaper started here last spring, and will manage and edit it himself. Carey is nephew of the late John Jacob Astor, and first cousin of the present John Jacob and William Walter. Mr. Carey's mother, who was Alida Astor, married an Englishman named John Carey. Henry Astor Carey's sister is Mrs. Elliott Zebrowksi, who obtained a divorce from her first husband, Baron de Steurs, the Belgian minister at Washington.

"Incog," a Comedy.

Laughter lovers will welcome the announcement of the appearance on Dec. 2nd and 3rd at the Victoria theatre of America's cleverest light comedian, Mr. Charles Dickson, supported by his own company of merry players. They will present a new double bill on each evening. On Friday, Dec. 2, "The Salt Cellar," a new one-act curtain-raiser, will open the evening's entertainment, to be followed by "Incog," a comedy farce, the fame of which has been known by theatre-goers for over a year. This play has appeared in every city of note in the United States, and everywhere has it met with instantaneous success, press and public alike showing their appreciation of its humorous situations and witty dialogue, the one by the most flattering praise and the other by large attendance. On Saturday night, Dec. 3rd, a different double bill will be presented. "The Man About Town" will be the first piece, to be followed by "A Paltry Million," a new comedy which received its first production at St. Paul, Minn., on the 13 of November, and scored an instantaneous success, being held to be a worthy successor to "Incog." In every way it is equal both as regards its humorous situations and its witty dialogue.

Passed off Pleasantly.

The concert in East Fernwood hall last night under the auspices of the Band of Hope, was well attended. Piano selections by Miss Hutcheson were appreciated. Mr. John Boyd and Miss Warren pleased in well selected readings. The recitation of Mr. Seagrove was well received. Messrs. Gold and Tiedemann gained encores for their solos. And the Band of Hope in the character sketch "Appearances are Deceitful," caused much merriment.

The owner, lessee, agent, or occupier of any building or premises used as a dwelling house, hotel, restaurant, saloon, shop, store, office, factory, wash-house, or otherwise, shall furnish the same with a sufficient drain under ground to carry off all waste or foul water or liquid filth; and no such drain shall empty or discharge into or upon any street, road, or highway, or any open drain thereon, unless in the opinion of the Mayor and Council the same shall not be detrimental to the public health.

All vaults and privies shall be made tight, so that the contents thereof cannot escape therefrom, and as remote from any dwelling, well, or water tank as practicable.

Every medical practitioner attending or visiting any person who is suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a maligant character dangerous to the public health, shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

PROPOSED C. P. R. GRAB.

Judging from the dispatches and the utterances of eastern politicians and papers, the proposal to hand over the Intercolonial to the Canadian Pacific stands very small chance of success. And it would be a great pity indeed if the project were to find acceptance. The Canadian Pacific Railway has already received from the country gifts of money and land that amply compensate it for all it has done, and the twin propositions that it should now be presented with the Intercolonial as a gift and be voted an annual subsidy of $750,000 for the establishment of a fast steamship line on the Atlantic could hardly be expected to commend themselves to the taxpayers of the Dominion. Look at the extent of the proposed gifts. The Intercolonial cost the people $50,000,000; the annual subsidy of $750,000 would represent a capital of $20,000,000; therefore it is coolly proposed that the Canadian Pacific should be handed the nice little sum of $70,000,000 in one lump from the Dominion treasury.

What would be the return for this princely gift? We are told that the country would be saved the amount of the annual deficit in the working of the Intercolonial, which before Mr. Haggart commenced the process of retrenchment amounted to half a million of dollars, and must even at present come to something like half that sum. The road as at present managed is a burden on the treasury; therefore, say the people who support the C.P.R. proposal, it would be an advantage to get rid of it. Then it is contended that the steamship subsidy of $750,000 a year would enable the Canadian Pacific to establish an Atlantic line that would bring a large amount of the European traffic our way. This, it is alleged, would put money in the pockets of Canadians, especially the residents of Halifax, Quebec and Montreal.

It must occur to the least observant reader that there is something peculiar about the willingness of the Canadian Pacific to take over a road that is not paying running expenses. Mr. Van Horne and his fellow directors are not the men to embark on a losing enterprise, and it is as clear as daylight that they would never dream of accepting the Intercolonial as a gift if they did not see their way to making money out of it. And there is no attempt made to conceal the fact that if the Intercolonial were managed on business principles it would show an annual surplus instead of a dividend, or at least pay its way. It is not run on business principles, but is used as a huge corruption agent in the interest of the Conservative party, and that is the reason for its being unprofitable. The Government's management of the road is thus described by our friend the Colonist in the course of an argument on behalf of the C.P.R. proposition:

> We are not surprised that the small politicians and the lazy place-hunters of the provinces through which the road runs do not like the idea of its being placed in the hands of a company which will run it on business principles, for it has been a kind of bonanza to them. The patronage of the road has been a handy thing to buy votes with, and according to Mr. Schreiber, the general superintendent, influential politicians have been able to get freight carried over the road on pretty much their own terms. A good place on the road, where there was not a great deal to do and the superintendent was not very exacting, was a soft thing for the young Nova Scotian or New Brunswicker who had influential friends and was not too fond of work. These people, when they find that politics is to have nothing to do with the running of the road, may have some reason to complain of its transference to the C.P.R., but those who want a business road through their country will find the change, instead of being an injury to them, will be a benefit.

Now while this is a severe condemnation of the Government's corrupt management, it is no argument at all for the giving away of the railway. If the Canadian Pacific could manage the road on business principles and make it pay its own running expenses, why cannot the Government do the same? Is there any reason why the Intercolonial must be an engine of corruption while in the Government's hands? We believe not unless it is the fact that the present Government cannot refrain from corruption. There are several Government railways in Australia and New Zealand which are managed on purely business principles and are therefore profitable to the colonies that own them. There is no charge of corruption or political favoritism made against their management. It is well understood, in fact, that if any Australian or New Zealand government were found using a government railway as a political engine it would be incontinently kicked out of office. Such is the benefit of having a healthy public opinion, the absence of which in our country has led to so many deplorable results. Again, if we are to accept the argument offered by the Colonist and others, it might be well to push it a little further. It is a notorious fact that the two departments of Public Works and Railways and Canals have been used by the Conservative governments as political machines and agencies of corruption. Why not, then, hand them over to Mr. Van Horne, who would no doubt manage them on business principles?

It would no doubt pay the Canadian Pacific to get possession of the Intercolonial. Not only would it be able to turn the deficit into a profit by proper management, but it would be able to bond the property for a handsome sum and thus guarantee dividends on its own stock. As the Government guarantee on the C.P.R. stock will shortly expire, this is an important consideration for Mr. Van Horne and his fellow directors. Moreover, having put through so profitable a transaction, Mr. Van Horne might perhaps be ready to "come down with the dust" at election times to help the party that would thus help him. In this way the Intercolonial might be converted from one sort of corruption agency into a slightly different sort.

As to the steamship subsidy, we take leave to borrow this presentation of the case from an eastern contemporary:—

> It is pretended that the subsidy of half a million dollars a year voted by Parliament towards the establishment of a fast Atlantic steamship line has not been applied for by any of the regular steamship companies, and that therefore it should be increased to $750,000 a year and given to Mr. Van Horne.
> The facts are: Those steamship companies which depend upon legitimate business, and not upon treasury raids for their profits, are well aware that the business of the country does not warrant the establishment of such a steamship service as that asked for by the government. Secondly, the regular companies know that Mr. Van Horne controls the Government, and that no company in which he is not interested would have a ghost of a chance of securing the subsidy. And, controlling as he does the whole situation, Mr. Van Horne sees no reason why he should not grab $750,000 a year as well as $500,000.
> The $750,000 a year which Mr. Foster proposes to give Mr. Van Horne is sufficient to pay interest upon $20,000,000. Consequently it is equivalent to a gift of $20,000,000 from the Canadian treasury—a sum sufficient to purchase and equip 25 of the largest and fastest ocean steamships.
> Taking all these things into account, we very strongly incline to the belief that the Canadian people will not endorse the proposal to hand over to the C. P. R. $70 000,000 of public money in exchange for the shadowy advantages promised.

THE HOWE AND THE WARSPITE.

When the verdict of the courtmartial in the Warspite case was made known the TIMES called attention to the similarity of circumstances attending the grounding of that vessel and those connected with the wreck of the Howe off the coast of Spain. The judgment of the Howe courtmartial is reported in our dispatches to-day, and will be read with a good deal of interest, particularly by those who sympathized with Captain Lambton and Staff-Commander Bawden. The Courtmartial acquits the officers of the Howe and places all the blame where it rightly belongs, on the Admiralty chart. Now, if the Howe's officers were right in trusting implicitly to a chart of the Spanish waters, which was made in Nelson's time, surely the Warspite's officers were at least equally free from blame in trusting to their chart, which is of quite recent date. This seems to be the conclusion to which any ordinary, plain man would come.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Mayor must feel much obliged to the Colonist for the kindly way in which it has volunteered to instruct him as to the proper uses of a hospital.

W. Bell, a member of the Young Conservative Association of Toronto, has given notice that he will ask that body to adopt a resolution declaring that the accession of Sir John Thompson to the premiership will lead to the disintegration of the Conservative party. Mr. Bell, it may be remarked, is an Orangeman. If this sort of thing goes on it may become necessary to abolish the Toronto Young Conservative Association.

The dispatches a week ago announced that Mr. George Robertson, the "regular" Conservative candidate, had been elected to the Commons in St. John, N. B., city and county. This appears to have been a mistake, as the eastern papers all report the election of Mr. John A. Chesley, who nominated himself to run against Mr. Robertson. The error is not of any great importance, as both men are Conservatives and promised to support the Government. The majority of the Liberals seem to have voted for Mr. Chesley.

Montreal Star:—The Canadian Manufacturer protests that it is not the fault of the manufacturers that the present tariff is not drastically reformed. "As to an immediate re-adjustment of the tariff," it says, "the manufacturers have been asking for it for a long time in the honest interests of the whole country, not of a class as the Star proposes. Some of the adjustments they desire include changes which will make Canada an iron producing country; that will cause Canadian logs to be cut into lumber in Canadian mills; that will stop the export of pulp wood in the interests of Canadian pulp mills; that will give us a nickel refining industry; that will give free sugar on the poor man's breakfast table; that will give us cheap coal oil and liquid fuel, and make it impossible for a combine to extort unjust and exorbitant prices for binder twine. If the manufacturers had seventy odd majority in the House of Commons, or even seven majority, these changes would have been effected at the last session. It is the Conservative party that has the majority, not the manufacturers." This is a direct charge against the Conservative leaders from the organ of the manufacturers, the gentlemen who are presumed to have the deepest interest in the details of the tariff. Of course, it is plain that the Manufacturer, in asking for a reduction of the duty on coal oil, does not speak for the Petrolia refiners; but it may safely be presumed to voice the opinions of the controling body of manufacturers, and the Conservatives may well heed its warning.

Victoria was visited yesterday by Mr. Thomas M. Beer, a member of the Ohio State Senate, from the city of Ashland. He is an old line Republican and has several excuses for the change of the political complexion of his state. First he says there was no interest taken, and then he says $50,000 from New York did the business

FROM THE ORIENT.

Arrival of the Palatial Northern Pacific Liner Victoria.

The Northern Pacific steamship Victoria arrived in the Roads from Yokohama at 1 o'clock this morning and at daylight came in and made a landing at the outer wharf. She was 14 days and 18 hours from Yokohama, being kept back by heavy weather on this side of the Pacific as she approached the straits. She brought over 2200 tons of general freight, 10 cabin passengers, and 75 Chinese. Her freight consists of 1333 tons destined to overland points, and 831 for the coast cities. The latter is divided as follows, Victoria, 201 tons; Portland, 244; Seattle, 133; Tacoma, 56; San Francisco, 127; with small consignments for New Westminster, Vancouver and Astoria. The Victoria brought 56 Chinese for Victoria, the rest being far American cities. The freight was all out at an early hour this afternoon and the ship departed for the Sound.

Among the passengers on the Victoria were Mr. Carlill, of the firm of Dodwell, Carlill & Co., who are handling the business of the line, and Capt. Marshall, of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Co. which owns the steamers. He is virtually superintendent of the line and is also the personal representative of Sir William Pierce, Bart. who is at the head of the company. Mr. Carlill is a quiet, unassuming man and is not free in expressing himself. He said the line was doing very well and that everything was moving along as satisfactorily as could be expected. He is on his way to New York on business. He is in charge of the firm's tea business and is a leader in the trade.

Captain Marshall talked to the TIMES man very readily. Said he: "The new line is doing very well and we are pushing it to the front in every conceivable way. We are opposed by the subsidized lines, the C.P.R. and the Pacific Mail. The former gets $45,000 a year while we get nothing. Of course I have no complaint to make, and no one to abuse. All I ask for is a fair chance at this business, and we will get our share. Yes, I have read the reports about the proposal to send the steamships Alaska and Arizona around to run on this line. I will say to you that it will be done if the business warrants."

Capt. Marshall is on his way home after five months absence. He, with Mr. Carlill and Alex. Stewart, Tacoma agent of the line, went across to the Sound on the steamer.

The officers of the Victoria report an uneventful trip across the Pacific with nothing of special interest in the line of news from the Orient.

The Chinese Missions.

The following editorial note appears in the Canada Presbyterian: "Our Methodist friends have really no reason to complain because the Presbyterian Church has sent a missionary to Victoria to labor among the Chinese. There is ample room and work there for the representatives of both churches. The are about 9000 Chinamen on the coast and 4000 of them in Victoria. If the good brother who represents Methodism in Victoria can minister to the spiritual necessities of 4000 Chinamen he can do more for Chinamen than most ministers can accomplish for white people supposed to be Christians."

William Tyndall's Life and Work.

The lecture to be delivered by Mr. S. M. Okell in the schoolroom of the Pandora avenue Methodist church on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 15th, should draw a full house. William Tyndall, the story of whose life forms the subject of the lecture, was one of the prominent characters of English history. The result of his life's work was the placing in the possession of the English people, the open Bible, printed in their own tongue. The proceeds of the lecture will be applied in the worthy cause of aiding the Methodist church at Victoria West.

Too Rough to Work.

Capt. Whitelaw and his men went out to the San Pedro this morning to make an attempt to recommence work. They had to return, however, as the waves were still washing over the wreck. No work has been done on the steamer for two weeks.

Thunder Hill Mine.

Mr. W. H. Bainbridge, secretary of the Thunder Hill Mining Company, has just received a letter from the company's manager. It states that all the new machinery with the exception of a few small pieces is now on the company's ground. The rest will be taken in on sleighs, and it is expected that the plant will be in operation by the 1st of February. Several thousand tons of ore are still on the dump ready to be treated.

Why He Watched the Safe.

A person looking through the windows of the city treasurer's office last night would have seen a man sitting on a chair with a revolver in each hand. A woman might have thought of burglars and shrieked, but those acquainted would have recognized the genial, smiling countenance of Officer Abel, snugly esconced in an arm chair. Officer Abel's business was to look after the safe. City Treasurer Kent did not think that the safe would "strole" down Government street, but the contents might "strole" into the inside pockets of some burglars. There were $31,000 of taxes in the safe.

This is Saint Andrew's day, which, with the 25th of January, shares the honors of the year among the Scots, especially the Scots abroad. The sons of Albyn in every foreign land, England or Australia, China, Japan, Canada, the United States; on the banks of the Paramatta or the Hoang-Ho, the Fraser or the Amazon, do something to show their respect for the land they left. In a city like Victoria, within reach of every adjunct to civilized enjoyment this tribute usually takes the form of a grand banquet, probably the grandest affair of that nature in the whole year. Around the festive board memories of the old land are conjured up by song and story; the intricate machinery of memory being, of course, lubricated with judicious applications of the "barley bree." This evening at the Driard Hotel the members of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society with a large number of guests will sit down to a splendid dinner. Among those who will be present may be mentioned Lieut.-Governor Dewdney, Mayor Beaven, the city council, the presidents of the benevolent societies of the city. Messrs. Haynes and Pauline will supply the music.

THREATENED TO BREAK HER UP.

In the provincial police court Henrietta Price asked that Richard Price, her brother-in-law, be bound over to keep the peace. The summons charges Price on Monday last with "threatening to 'break her up'" and "put her to h——l out of that." Mrs. Price was placed in the box by Lawyer Higgins. Mrs. Price is a young woman and wore a hat trimmed with crepe, a sealskin coat and a fur boa. Price used the language alleged, and struck her with his fist. She was afraid that Price might do her bodily injury. She kept a little girl in the house on this account. Her brother-in-law behaved well when her husband was present. She ran out of the house and sought the protection of the laboring men when Price threatened her. Lawyer Mills asked witness in cross-examination did not Price mean that he would put her out. She replied that he might have had such a meaning. Mrs. Price did not afterwards shake hands with her brother-in-law. He put his arms round her neck and asked her to be a good girl. She disengaged herself from him. Price, who was sitting by Lawyer Mills here interjected that she did shake hands with him and the court asked her if she would swear that she was afraid of her life. She replied in the affirmative and stated that Price had threatened on several occasions to break every bone in her body.

Joseph Gascon, a farm laborer, employed by the Price's at Parson's Bridge, swore that he heard Price threaten his sister-in-law. Witness said he understood Price to mean that he would break up the house. Price swore that he never struck his sister-in-law. She had abused him often. After the fight she took two glasses of beer with him at the bar. The court dismissed the case urging the parties to "make up."

AT THE OPERA.

Two Noted Pieces Presented Last Night by the Duff Company.

Another packed house greeted the Duff Opera Company, or, to be strictly accurate, the small portion of it doing duty as the company, last night at the Victoria. As predicted last evening the attempt to present "Cavalleria Rusticana" was a total failure. The five musicians in the orchestra bravely tackled the music supposed to be rendered by at least sixty players, what they missed out the imagination was left to supply and a very lively imagination indeed would have been required. A certain great local authority says: "Cavalleria Rusticana" "is regarded as Pietro Mascagni's masterpiece." There seems to be a strong probability that this is the case, as Mascagni never wrote any other opera, is only twenty-three and was never heard of outside his own town before the "Rusticana" was produced. But the information as to the masterpiece is still very valuable as it settles certain disputed points. The singing in the melancholy little melodrama was another disappointment. Miss Knox, as Suntuzza, sustained her part with undoubted ability, and was not sparing of her voice. Miss Bertram was ill and could not appear. Mr. Bassett made a good impression as Turridu, his voice being heard to better advantage than on the previous night. Miss von Doenhoff's warbling of the part of Lucia was enjoyable, and Mr. William Schuster made a fine Alfio with his portly presence and manly voice. But the work was sadly clipped and trimmed down to suit the decimated orchestra and chorus. The chorus was not "half bad," but like the rest of the entertainment might have been, and, considering the enormous profits of the house, ought to have been, very much better. The old favorite "Trial by Jury" was carried through with a good deal of elan and power. Mr. Ryley as the judge provoked infinite violation of gravity. The Duff Opera company has been a disappointment in many ways.

In future, and let managers of opera companies take note of the fact, pains will be taken to find out how many people are being sent here to represent companies, and if there is any such arrangement as the Duff Company has presumed to treat Victoria theatregoers this week, the managers can rest perfectly assured that the engagement will not be a profitable one. If full companies, orchestra and chorus, are sent Victoria will give as good support as the Duff Company's travelling section got, but really did not deserve.

Police Court Budget.

Joseph Carmine, drunk, was fined $10. Wong Sing, charged with supplying liquor to Jim, Hydah Indian, was dismissed. The evidence was not sufficient to commit. Jim was "sent up" for two months. The charge of vagrancy against Edward Shanks was remanded for hearing till Monday. A. Leary, charged with using threatening language to Frank Webbe, was bound over for six months in the sum of $200 personal recognizance and in two sureties of $100 each.

Proposed Improvements Discussed.

A meeting of the directors of the Albion Iron Works Company was held this morning. The proposed improvements to the company's works outlined in last evening's TIMES were discussed at some length, but nothing definite was decided upon. Another meeting will be held shortly. In last evening's account of an interview with the president of the works, it was stated that Mr. Alex. Dunsmuir was the president. Mr. James Dunsmuir is president of the company.

TO REPAIR THE PREMIER.

The Albion Iron Works Company Receive the Contract to Repair the Premier.

The Albion Iron Works Company were yesterday awarded the contract for the repairs to the C.P.N. Company's steamer Premier. There was a large number of tenders in for the work and it is understood that the different tenderers figured very closely.

As soon as the contract was awarded, Mr. Thos. Shaw, foreman of the Albion boiler department, went to Esquimalt with a gang of men and started work. The first gang worked last evening, and a second shift went to work this morning. The work will be continued night and day until the repairs have been completed. The contract price is about $75,000. One of the contracting company's officials said last evening that the job was the biggest that had been done in Victoria for some time. Besides the big hole in the port side of the Premier, a number of plates on the starboard side have been twisted and bulged. The keel is also badly damaged. It will take some time to get the twisted plates and ribs out of the way.

Supreme Court.

The case of Grimm vs. Clay, an interpleader issue, was tried to-day before Drake, J., and a special jury. In 1885 Marston, a hack driver, was carrying on business on Johnson street, and, being short of cash, got the plaintiff, Mr. Grimm, to endorse his notes from time to time. This practice continued for two or three years, until Grimm found that he had endorsed notes to the amount of $4830, whereupon, in order to protect himself, he got from Marston a chattel mortgage for $5000, which covered the $4830 and sundry smaller claims arising from other transactions. The mortgage was given in May, and in October following Marston ran away, leaving a note for Mr. Grimm, asking him to take possession, which the latter accordingly did. On November 17th the sheriff seized all the goods of Marston, then in the possession of Mr. Grimm, and sold them to satisfy a claim of the defendant, Mr. Clay. The question for the jury to decide in this case is whether Marston gave the plaintiff the chattel mortgage with a view to defraud his other creditors.

Messrs. Ebert & Taylor appear for the plaintiff and Mr. Thornton Fell for the defendant.

A DASHING PRINCESS.

She Again Furnishes Material for Gossip in France.

New York Sun.]

The Princess Marie d'Orleans, daughter of the Duke de Chartres, again furnishes material for gossip in the French papers. Seven years ago she married Prince Valdemar of Denmark and went to live in Copenhagen. The married couple took up very modest quarters in th eYellow Palace. But soon the Princess got tired of this kind of quiet life, which did not suit her modern and artistic tastes. She began to make her home brilliant and gay. The members of the royal family, and particularly Queen Louise, considered themselves very greatly scandalized by her conduct.

In spite of the remonstrances of her austere mother-in-law, the lively Princess displayed all sorts of eccentricities, which the four hundred of Copenhagen considered outrageous. Educated in the free air of English liberty, her little Parisian brain constantly busied itself in the manufacture of new distractions. She was often seen on horseback dashing along accompanied by only a single escort, and in her little pony phaeton she loved to dash along at full speed through the streets of Copenhagen. She seldom failed to go to the races, where she chatted familiarly with groups of officers and sportsmen while she smoked her cigarettes. Naturally enough, the men encouraged her, because she was original and charming, while the ladies were scandalized.

The brilliant and lovely little Princess shocked them still more by her private parties in the Yellow Palace, at which gentlemen only were invited. Last New Year's eve she sent the following invitation to her military friends:

Come and take supper the 31st of December at 11:30 o'clock.

Of course they came and had a glorious time. The Princess herself made the punch and touched glasses with her guests just as the old clock sounded midnight, announcing the arrival of the new year. On another occasion, when her guests were enjoying themselves hugely and making quite an uproar, she said to them: "Hush! hush! You will wake up old Uncle Hans." "Uncle Hans" is the brother of the King.

Her fun seems to be over for the present. A short time ago she mysteriously left Copenhagen, and she is now in Paris with her parents. It was at first said that she left because her husband was too attentive to another lady. But this story is not credited, and it is now rumored that Prince Valdemar is about to join his wife in Paris. A difference in the religious views of the Prince and Princess is said to be the real cause of the trouble. He is a Protestant and she is a Catholic, and wishes to have her children brought up in her own faith.

In spite of this little family jar, the sprightly little Princess will yet make things lively around her in Paris.

"After Dark" To-Night.

Dion Boucicault's famous play, "After Dark," will be at the Victoria this evening. It is presented under the management of W. A. Brady, the extent and success of whose theatrical enterprises has been a matter of much surprise. In mounting "After Dark" the greatest care has been exercised. The scenery is in keeping with the most recent ideas of realism. In the great water scene an immense tank is used, and the incident which presents the rescue of the hero from death by being run over by a locomotive never fails to prove thrilling to the utmost degree. It is pure melodrama, of a style which only Boucicault would be capable of maintaining. Several striking novelties are introduced in the scene which represents a London music hall. The specialty talent which is expected in such a connection is faithfully offered, and it is a stroke that never fails to please.

ARCHIMEDES.

Archimedes was a famous geometrician and astronomer of Syracuse, who, when that city was besieged by the Romans, for a long time baffled their efforts by means of the machines which he had invented. Harvard Bronchial Syrup which emanated from the celebrated Harvard University is the most celebrated and wonderful remedy of modern times for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, sore throat and all bronchial affections. This marvellous cough medicine has met with unprecedented success in every country where it has been introduced. Its effects are instant; its working powers are complete, and once used, it is always the favorite preparation of the home. Our best people gladly testify in its favor, and strongly recommend it to their friends. The medical profession of Canada recognize the value of Harvard Bronchial Syrup in severe and obstinate cases of sore throat, croup, and affections of the bronchial tubes.

NICHOLAS AWREY, M.P.P.

Portrait and Sketch of Ontario's Commissioner at the World's Fair.

When Mr. Nicholas Awrey, M.P.P. for South Wentworth, was appointed commissioner for Ontario at the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago in 1893, the press, irrespective of party, spoke very favorably of the gentleman's qualifications for the honorable position. Mr. Awrey has devoted much time and attention to the improvement of agriculture and agricultural conditions, and is known throughout the length and breadth of the province as the president of the Central Farmers' Institute. The subject of the sketch and illustration was born on the 8th day of June, 1851, in the township of Binbrook, in the county of Wentworth, where he still resides. A descendant of the U.E. Loyalist stock, one of whom served in the Canadian forces throughout the war of 1812, he, with equal patriotism, served for seven years as an officer in the Canadian volunteers at the time of the Fenian raid. At a very early age he entered upon public life, for which he has a natural predilection, and in 1877 he was elected a member of the municipal council of the township of Binbrook, and the following year he was chosen to represent South Wentworth in the Ontario Legislature. In matters of agriculture his services were sought for to even a greater degree; for seven years he filled the position of secretary-treasurer of the townships of Binbrook and Saltfleet fair, and he has been a member of the great Central Fair board for a number of years. In 1889 he was elected a member of the council of the Agriculture and Arts Association of Ontario, and in the same year he was unanimously elected president of the Central Farmers' Institute, a position to which he was re-elected the following year, and again in 1892. Mr. Awrey at once began work in earnest upon his appointment as commissioner with his usual energy, and as a result of his request the following amounts of space have been alloted to Ontario alone: Horses, 125; cattle, 150; sheep, 300; pigs, 100. Space for 2,500 packages of cheese.

Ten thousand square feet of space has been allotted to the Dominion for the mining exhibit; 2,400 square feet for fruit; space for 200 coops of poultry. Two thousand square feet was requested for Ontario as space for fine arts, and as 2,970 square feet has been granted to the Dominion, and the largest proportion of the exhibit will probably be from Ontario, there is little doubt that the amount asked for will be granted. The liberal arts have been allotted 5,000 square feet, and unlimited space will be given for the canine exhibit. Several alterations have been made in the old prize lists, and a new edition will shortly be issued. Some of the amendments that are most important to Canadian exhibitors are: The ages of animals will be computed as follows: Horses from the 24th of August; cattle, Sept. 11th; sheep and swine, Oct. 2nd, fat stock, Oct. 16th. The entries for horses and cattle close June 15th, 1893; sheep and swine, July 1st, 1893; fat stock, Aug. 14th, 1893; poultry, July 13th, 1893; dogs, May 20th, 1893. The time that the different kinds of stock will have to be on exhibition are: Horses and cattle, Aug. 31st to Sept. 21st; sheep and pigs, Sept. 25th to Oct. 14th; fat stock, Oct. 16th to 28th; poultry, Oct. 16th to 28th; dogs, Aug. 1st to 7th.

Canada's Building.

Canada will erect a World's Fair building at Chicago 100 feet long by 44 feet wide, with a ten foot verandah surrounding it on all sides. Plans have been submitted for approval.

INTERIOR NEWS.

Winter Setting in—To Recover Railway Iron New Works in Spring.

From the Revelstoke Star.]

It is stated that the Revelstoke sawmill will be rebuilt at once on the same site.

The snow plow was on duty last Thursday for the first time this season. It went as far as Sicamous.

It is hardly probable that the Lytton will be able to make any more trips after next week. In fact, the next may be the last, as the floes of snow ice are coming down the river in increasing size and numbers. The steam scow is ready for service, but will not run till spring, when she will be utilized before the water is deep enough for the steamboats.

Mr. Buchanan, of Kaslo, who has been interviewed by a reporter while visiting the coast, says contracts have been made with the packers to haul out from the Slocan mines about one million dollars' worth of silver ore this winter. Had the intersecting roads been completed, Mr. Buchanan says, over two million dollars' worth would be brought out this winter.

Messrs. P. M. Walker, C. Holden and T. Downs left Revelstoke this week for their usual winter's work of blasting rocks in the channel of the Columbia river. Their work this year lies in the narrows between the Upper and Lower Arrow lakes. Messrs. Walker and Downs went down by steamer, and Mr. Holden left yesterday in a rowboat for a cold and solitary journey of 70 miles.

The weather is getting wintry. Fine particles of snow have been falling all the week, and are still coming, with a likelihood of equalling the heavy snowfall of last year, being now between two and three feet on the level, with deeper drifts here and there. The thermometer went down several degrees during Thursday, but has risen a little since. Thursday night was the coldest yet experienced this season.

Reports of the rich strikes in West Kootenay appear to have reached Minneapolis, as there has just been organized in that city a company called "The Kootenay Prospecting and Supply Company." The officers are: president, Marcus P. Hayne; vice-president and manager, E. C. Betts; treasurer, Joseph T. Mannix; secretary, J. B. McArthur. Others of well-known financial standing are identified with the company.

A carload of railway iron, which was being taken on board a scow at Revelstoke for shipment to Sproat's Landing for the C. & K. Railway two years ago last summer, went overboard in deep water near the lower wharf, where it has lain undisturbed ever since. The C.P.R. Co. is about to make an effort to recover the car and rails (20 tons), and Supt. Abbott has made arrangements with Mr. John McHardy, a professional diver of Victoria, for that purpose.

Many rumors are in circulation as to the commencement of new works in this town next spring. It is from a reliable source that we hear the C.P.R. Co. intend erecting large repair shops here, and making Revelstoke an important junction. It is also rumored that the new iron bridge across the Columbia will be commenced next summer. One fact is certain—that the station townsite will be offered in lots as soon as the surveyors get through the work of laying it out.

There is a good mine in the Slocan, about twelve miles north of New Denver, which has not hitherto received very much notice from the newspapers, but which is nevertheless equal to some of the best in the district. This is the J. E. Long claim, owned by a gentleman residing in Revelstoke. Samples of ore from this mine assayed in New Denver went over 700 oz. silver per ton. Had it been more accessible the mine would have been shipping ore this fall, but the want of a road renders it difficult to do so. All the assessment work has been done and the mine laid open. It is the owner's intention to send ore to the smelter next summer, but not being a capitalist the first outlay is the great difficulty. It will not be very long, though, before there are roads leading to every group of mines in the district.

Messrs. C. F. Blackburn, mining geologist, of Seattle; Edward Blewett, mining capitalist, of Seattle; and Mr. Pearsoll, the discoverer of the Monte Cristo mining district, Wash., in company with Mr. T. Downs, of Revelstoke, were passengers on the steamer Marion last week for the Lardeau. Mr. Blackburn had brought the two gentlemen here from Seattle to examine some of the big gold, silver-galena ledges in the Lardeau with a view to getting Mr. Blewett interested in these famous mines. But, unfortunately, a heavy snowstorm had been prevailing in the mountains for several days, and after getting within two miles of one of the big lodes they were obliged to abandon the undertaking, as the snow was four feet deep, making it impossible to give the property the thorough examination contemplated. Mr. Blackburn, especially, was very much disappointed, as there was no doubt of the deal going through had the snow permitted an examination. The gentlemen returned to the coast last Saturday night. Mr. Blewett is a heavy mine dealer, owning some of the richest mines in the state of Washington, besides being one of the promoters of the branch railroad to Monte Cristo now under construction, and the large smelting works now being erected at Everett, on Puget Sound. Mr. Blewett has promised to come again as soon as the snow clears next spring and examine the mines in the Lardeau. Being a practical man and a millionaire, Mr. Blewett will soon grasp the situation, and no doubt a number of the Lardeau gold-silver claims will change hands and be extensively worked. In the meantime Mr. Blackburn is in communication with some Boston capitalists who will arrive here next spring with a view to purchasing meritorious properties. It is very likely that two large deals will yet be consummated this winter.

From the Inland Sentinel.]

The Yale and Lillooet Pioneer Society will hold its annual festival at Ashcroft on Monday evening, January 9, 1893.

It is to be regretted that, owing to a dispute among the shareholders in the International Mining Co., development work has been suspended on this property on Volcanic Mountain. Mr. R. A. Brown, who has located the Sunset and Copper Queen claims near here, being one of the shareholders of the company, expresses himself as very much regretting such a state of affairs.

A large number of hydraulic claims were taken up in Similkameen during the summer, but the season was so far advanced that the parties decided to wait until next spring before proceeding with development work.

Mr. R. A. Brown, of Kettle River, located two claims between the head waters of Wolf Creek and Similkameen River last week. The claims are both peacock copper prospects, and are named the "Sunset" and "Copper Queen."

The last week has been a severe one between Kamloops and the Fraser valley. Trains have been much delayed, and it is reported that no less than 25 slides have occurred, and that 200 men and two steam shovels were employed in clearing away the debris.

Similkameen stock enters the winter in fine condition. They are out on the higher ranges and are doing well. The weather is favorable. As a mineral country this section is little inferior to the famous Kootenay, now so much spoken of as the bonanza camp of British Columbia. Considerable prospecting has been done this season. Several assays from these locations have run from 30 to 70 per cent. copper, and $5 to $35 per ton silver. The wall rock on one side is diorite, and on the other trap rock. The indications are that an immense body of mineral exists here. No doubt Mr. Brown has succeeded in locating the long sought for body of peacock copper known to exist here, and for the discovery of which much time and money have been expended unsuccessfully. The coming season will see the practical development of this important find.

The Vancouver Hydraulic Company having got their works in readiness at Van Winkle Bar, as reported last week, let water onto their gravel, but owing to the severe weather which began last Friday they were compelled to stop operations. The company had only about 700 out of the 1200 to 1500 miners' inches of water to which it had secured the right, but even with this diminished quantity, the engineering and mechanical arrangements were found to be most satisfactory, and to give assurance to those who have embarked their capital in the enterprise that the money has been expended judiciously and with excellent judgment. It is not yet decided whether operations will be resumed again this season, as it will depend on the weather. Should it continue inclement, it is probable that the company will suspend further operations until the spring, and make a clean up now of the week's work. When in full operation the hydraulic appliances are sufficient to wash from 3500 to 5000 cubic yards (according to the circumstances) of gravel in the 24 hours. The company has about 800 acres of ground, the gravel being on three benches, and the depth of them varies between 120 and 400 feet.

From the Golden Era.]

We hear that Dan Mann will develop the "North Star" claim at Fort Steele this winter and to do so very thoroughly is about to employ no less than twenty men. Such an undertaking will be sure to assist to no small extent in the progress of that and this camp.

Capt. F. P. Armstrong and crew of the "Hyak" returned from Windermere on Saturday last. The boats of the Upper Columbia Co. have been kept very busy this summer. Judging from the present outlook it does not appear as if the next will be any exception. Fort Steele with her numerous good mineral prospects and Thunder Hill, too, will be sure to keep the service in great activity.

Golden has been visited recently by two severe snow storms, the one on Friday night of last week and the other on Tuesday of this. The ground is now covered to the extent of some two and a half feet and looks very much as if there will be more before we are through. Work in the early part of the week was put aside, but through the assistance of the sleigh and cutter, traffic has been resumed and laborers are enabled to proceed as usual.

VICTIMS OF THE SEA.

Mysterious Disappearance of Two Young Victorians Near Race Rocks.

They Went Sailing on Saturday and 'tis Thought Perished in the Storm.

John Wilson, driver of the Phœnix Brewery delivery wagon, and Frank Marshall, proprietor of the Point Ellice boathouse, went out sailing on Saturday, and have not returned. It is feared that they were drowned. A sloop overturned was found floating near the Seven-Mile house below Esquimalt this morning by some fishermen. The description given of it answers to that of the one in which Wilson and Marshall started off. While it is not absolutely certain that the two young men have been drowned, there is little or nothing that gives hope to the contrary.

The trip was planned last week and several other friends were to have gone. It was agreed that on Saturday they should sail down to the Race and remain all night and all the next day, returning on Sunday night. However, the rest of the party could not go, so Wilson and Marshall started off together. Their failure to return on Monday or yesterday excited anxiety among friends and relations.

This morning when the finding of the boat mentioned above was reported, it was decided to send a launch down to see the boat and make a search accordingly. Dan McIntosh with two men left at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the steam launch Gorge, but up to the hour of going to press they had not returned.

Both men were formerly employed on the tramway and were both very popular with employers and employes. They left the tramway company's service to accept other places. Wilson had no relatives in the city, but a brother of Marshall is proprietor of the Douglas House. Neither of the young men was over 25 years of age.

CUFFED AND CURSED.

Harrowing Details of the Treatment of the Crew of the Ganges.

J. H. James brought action in the provincial police court this afternoon to be liberated from his articles as boatswain of the bark River Ganges.

James told his story: Captain Budge, a few days after they were out from Rio de Janeiro, swore at James for leaving a light burning, and shook his fist in James' face. James once complained that the foot ropes of the Ganges were dangerous. The captain told him to go to h—l, that he would put daylight through him. Objectionable adjectival clauses were also mingled in. As a result of the rotten foot-ropes, witness and the carpenter fell, but grabbed at and hung to the sails. When James was sick, Capt. Budge ordered the light to be taken out of his room and no food to be given him. The steward gave him a weevilled biscuit and told witness not to tell the old man. This remark created a roar of laughter among the great crowd in the court room. The weevilled biscuits were produced. Magistrates Pearson and Shotbolt examined them.

The scales on board the Ganges were produced. They were taken by witness to Mr. Langley and tested. They showed a shortage of one pound in eight.

Witness did not get enough food during the voyage. Witness saw Capt. Budge drunk off Cape Horne. Lawyer Mills asked witness if he would swear that Capt. Budge was not a temperance man. The crew of the Ganges who were in court laughed outright. The flour, witness told the court, was full of "live stock" (Laughter). The cook had to sift it through a mosquito netting before using it (renewed laughter). When the witness was sick Capt. Budge sent him up a tumbler of castor oil and ornered no food to be given. No good bread was supplied the crew even after they arrived in Victoria. After the trial of seven alleged mutineers of the Ganges and their acquittal, Capt. Budge put on a supply of good food. Capt. Budge would give orders one day and contradict them the next. Budge told witness to get down the royal yard, and a few hours afterwards wanted to know "why the d——l he was taking down that yard." (Laughter.) Budge was drunk at the time.

John Ericsson, carpenter, swore that Budge cursed his men without cause. Witness did not see Budge drink liquor, but Budge smelt of whiskey. The footropes were rotten.

Frederick Davis, ship's boys, testified that the footropes were rotten. All the mainmast ropes were bad. The food supplied was also very bad. A part of the crew left at Buenos Ayres because the food was bad. They did not often get their proper "whack" of the food. Cross-examined by lawyer Mills witness was asked was there another pair of scales on board. There was. The witness threw them overboard. Asked why, he replied that they were not fit to keep on board. There was a ring of merriment in the court. Witness told the court that frequently he was hungry on board ship. They got pork and pea soup, and bad bread most of the time. Asked if he ever got plum-duff, he replied only at Christmas.

The case is in progress.
